

Attachment Disorders

Often, children with attachment disorders provide the greatest challenges in school.

Attachment issues affect behaviour, learning, relationships, social skills and lifelong development.

This session will investigate the nature and characteristics of attachment disorder and will explore techniques for support and intervention within an educational setting.

Suitable for:-

Teaching Assistants

Teachers

SLTs

SENCOs

When: Thursday 17 January 2019

Where: Management Suite, Thorpe St Andrew School and Sixth Form (Pound Lane entrance)

Time: 1.30pm—3pm

Cost: £30 per person (limited spaces available)

To book your place please email: ntlec@thorpe-st-andrew.norfolk.sch.uk

National Teaching School designated by

National College for Teaching & Leadership