Recently Qualified Teacher Programme (RQT)

Recently Qualified Teacher Programme is running this year

This highly successful programme was devised by Teaching Schools in partnership with the Anglia Workforce Development Group of the National College for Teaching and Learning and the Eastern Leadership Centre. It is accredited through the National College.

The Programme is designed to:

- Retain and motivate existing teachers
- Steer RQTs on future pathways, including development towards management
- Have a positive impact on individual and whole school teaching and learning
- Share good practice across schools
- Provide an opportunity to work with NCTL Specialist Leaders of Education and accredited trainers.

Benefits to participating school:

With a focus on reflective practice and a coaching style, the programme is centred around three face to face days with associated inter-sessional activities:

- Great Teaching: becoming an expert practitioner in the classroom through impact, reflection and risk!
- Leading Learning; taking others with you through inspiration; vision and values
- Forging ahead: pathways to further
